FAA Florence Location

We are happy to assist our students to find accommodation during their stay.

LIST OF HOUSING AGENTS

Students who wish to live on their own in apartments or other accommodation can find some useful information in the confirmation email, this includes information on location and where to search etc.

By agreeing to our Terms and Conditions we can provide you a list of housing agents and hotels located within walking distance or short bus ride from the school.

A) The Florence Academy of Art assumes no legal obligations for damage, theft or loss of personal property. The Student is responsible for protecting and securing any personal property located in the rental premises and is recommended to obtain appropriate insurance.

B) The academy's office acts as a reference center to assist students to find housing while they are studying at its program in Florence, Italy. It accepts listings of accommodations from various agencies and/or landlords for the convenience of its students, who can contact them directly. Your contract will be directly with either the agency or landlord, and the Florence Academy of Art will remain completely extraneous to such contractual arrangement. The Florence Academy of Art does not inspect the accommodations and takes no responsibility for the condition of any premises that are listed and/or accommodations that we find on your behalf. The names of any agencies/landlords or listings we provide do not imply approval or recommendations by the Florence Academy of Art.

C) You agree to hold The Florence Academy of Art harmless from any and all liability, including but not limited to any loss, damage, injury or expense related to the accommodations that are the object of this Housing Request.

D) You hereby authorize The Florence Academy of Art and its affiliates to share your personal information with third parties, including but not limited to partners, vendors, and service providers, for the purpose of providing you with the services and products you have requested and for administrative purposes.
